

NEW YORK HERALD, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

SEALED PROPOSALS ARE INVITED TILL THE 23rd day of November 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for purchasing the land and the houses, houses, barns, and buildings, and all the property in the territories called the "States of the Confederacy," situated between the Rappahannock and Potowmack rivers and the Blue Ridge mountains.

It is intended that the contractor shall follow the army and collect the hides and furs, goats and horns, and shall pay a certain sum to the contractor, and the remainder to be collected by his own risk. He will be charged with the cost in each case, unless he can clearly show that he was prevented from collecting them by proper authority.

A deposit, with interest, and a bond, will be required for the fulfillment of the contract, and no bid will be entertained from any person or contractors who have failed to comply with the above conditions, or who have entered into unless the bidder is present to respond to his bid.

The articles of agreement, with a bond, will be received to be entered into within two days from the opening of the bids.

The bids to be directed to Colonel A. Beckwith, A. D. C. and C. in Washington, D. C., and endorsed "Proposed."

A ENGINEER'S OFFICE OF ONE OF OUR CITY REGIMENT—The Engineers, New York, are hereby ordered to report to the Adjutant General on or before 10 o'clock, to-morrow morning, any previous contractors who have failed to comply with the above conditions, or who have entered into unless the bidder is present to respond to his bid.
